

I wonder what would happen if we treated our Bhagavad Gita like we treat our cell phone?

What if we carried it around in our purses or pockets?

What if we flipped through it several times a day?

What if we turned back to get it if we forgot it?

What if we used it to receive messages from the text?

What if we treated it like we couldn't live without it?

What if we gave it to our children as a gift?

What if we used it when we travelled?

What if we used it in case of emergency?

Are you inspired to say: "Hmm... Where is my Bhagavad Gita?"

Oh, and one more thing: Unlike our cell phone, we don't have to worry about our Bhagavad Gita being disconnected because Lord Krishna already paid the bill.

Makes you stop and think “Where are my priorities?” No rejected calls – Krishna gives us what we want. No flat battery – link with Krishna is spiritual and everlasting. No “pls call me” messages because He will be there for you at every moment!!!

Chant:

*Hare Krishna Hare Krishna Krishna Krishna Hare Hare Hare Rama Hare Rama Rama Rama
Hare Hare*

And Be Happy!
