The Hare Krishna Centre in Leicester holds its weekly programme every Saturday at 7 PM at 28 Evington Road in Leicester, LE2 1HG. The programme starts with tulasi arati followed by the Gaura arati ceremony, after which devotees listen to and discuss a talk given by Srila Prabhupada, the Founder Acharya of the International Society for Krishna consciousness (ISKCON).

At times various speakers frequent the Centre to inspire devotees and guests alike. The evening ends around 9 PM with a sumptuous vegetarian prasadam feast. All are welcome and admission is free!

Every Thursday is a bhakti workshop in which devotees discuss verses from the Gita, Nectar of Devotion etc. This gives valuable insight into the Bhagavad-gita and the philosophy of pure devotional service.
